MORRIS HARVEY COLLEGE
CHARLESTON, W. VA.

Awake! for Morning in the Bowl of Night
Has flung the Stone that puts the Stars to Flight
And Lo! The Hunter of the East has caught the Sultan's Turret in a noose of Light.

Dreaming when Dawn's left hand was in the sky
I heard a Voice within the College cry,

“Awake, my little ones, and fill the cup
Before Life's liquor in its Cup be dry.”

Come, and in the Fire of Spring
The Winter Garment of Repentance fling
The Bird of Time has but a little way
To fly—and Lo! the Bird is on the wing.

Here with a Loaf of Bread beneath the Bough,
A Flask of Wine, a Book of Verse—and Thou
Beside me singing in the Wilderness—
And Wilderness is Paradise now.

“How sweet is Mortal Sovranty!”—think some:
Others—“How Blest the Paradise to come!”

Ah, take the cash in hand and waive the rest:
Oh, the brave music of a distant drum! . . .
Look to the Rose that blows about us—“Lo
Laughing,” she says, “into the World I blow
the silken tassel of my purse
Tear, and its Treasure on the garden throw.”

The Worldly Hope men set their Hearts upon
Turns Ashes—or it prospers; and anon,
Like Snow upon the desert's dusty face
Lighting a little Hour or two—is gone.

And those who Husbanded the Golden Grain,
And those who flung it to the winds like Rain
 Alike to no such aureate Earth are turn'd
As, Buried once, Men want dug up again.

Ah, my beloved, fill the cup that clears
To-Day of Past regrets and Future fears—
To-morrow? Why, Tomorrow I may be
Myself with Yesterday's seven thousand Years.

Lo! Some we loved, the loveliest and the best
That Time and Fate of their Vintage prest
 Laughed and sung a while
And one by one crept silently to Rest.

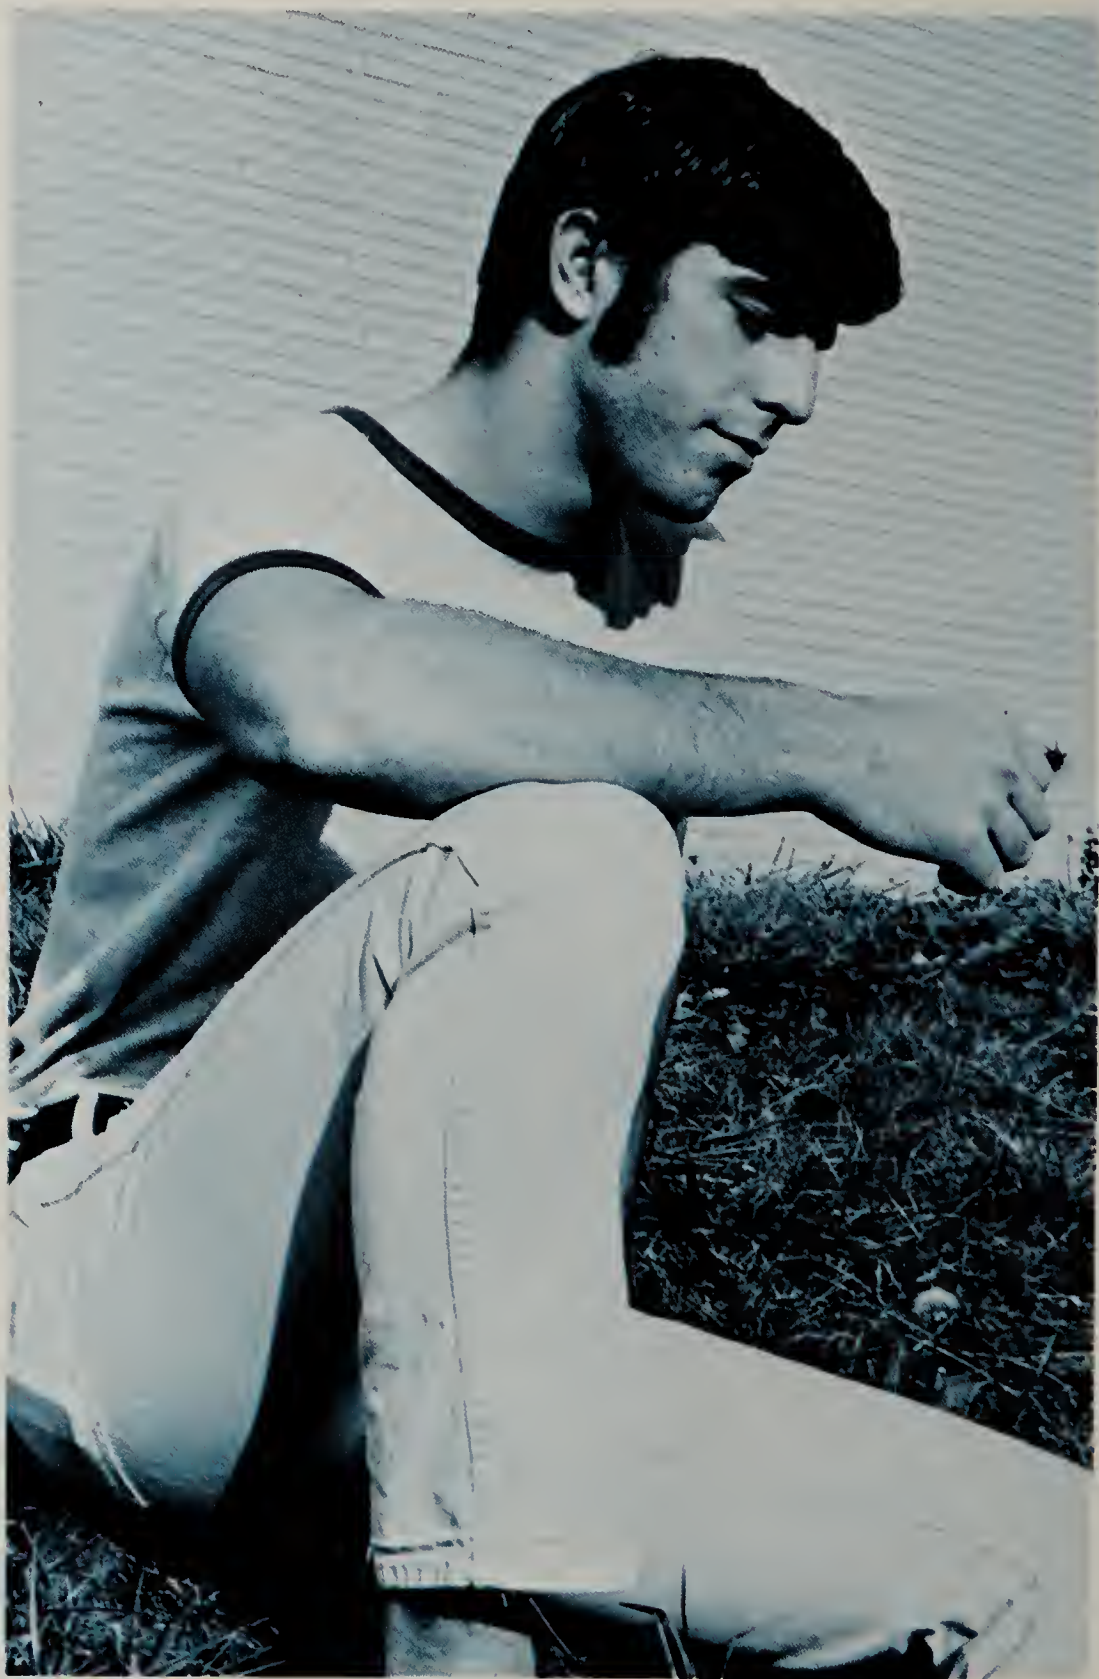

Ah, make the most of what we yet spend,
Before we too into Dust descend;
 Dust into Dust, and under Dust to lie
San's wine, San's song, San's singer and San's End.

Oh, come with old Khay'am, and leave the Wise
To talk; one thing is certain, that life flies:

One thing is certain, and the rest lies.
The flower that once has bloomed, forever dies.

With him the Seed of Wisdom did I sow,
and with my own hand labour'd it to grow:
And this was all the harvest that I reap'd—
“I came like water, and like Wind I go.”

Into this Universe, and Why not knowing,
Nor Whence, like Water willy-nilly flowing;
And out of it, as Wind along the waste,
I know not Whither, willy-nilly blowing.

The story may be old,
but each student's experience is fresh.
Student life is sitting on the front steps,
walking to the dorms in the rain,

Putting money in the food machines
And getting nothing in return.
This is student life;
All else is history.

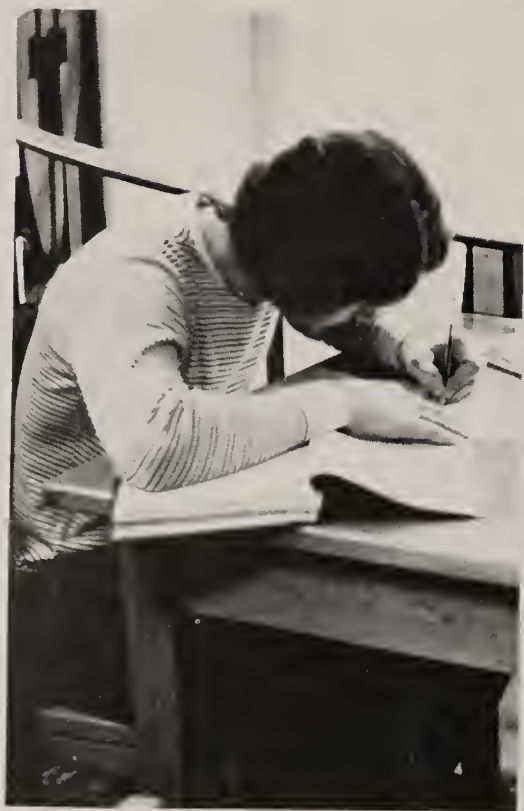

Student life breathes tons of chalk,
wracks many brains, and weathers many files.
Yet, these events have occurred before.—
And probably will again.

It's how each student is affected by these occurrences that makes his life so much a part of the whole;
Yet so unique.

CONCERTS

Brian Carney, the son of Art Carney, appeared on Morris Harvey's campus Feb. 21. After watching our basketball game, he began his performance. Brian, backed by a subtle rhythm and bass guitar, played and sang folk, and oldy-goldy rock. He imitated Elvis, Donovan, and Dylan. Many jokes were told. The audience had a fabulous time. After a thundering applause, Carney was cajoled into playing an extra half hour. After the show a birthday party was given for him, and he stayed on campus an extra day. Other concerts were given by Edmunds and Curley and Big Daddy.

Student life is Greek Carnivals, recuperating at BBF, or just a warm, sunny walk to Valley Bell.

Student life is the sadness that the seniors feel when they realize this type of life will be gone, and each will go his own way.

The only thing that nostalgia and nausea have in common is that they both start with "n." At an age when we are looking forward more than backward, talk of memories has little appeal. Yet no one is young forever, and there will come a time when tradition and the old things will be all we have left. And so this section is dedicated to traditions and, we hope, fond memories. So that you say look back and remember. What else is an annual for?

Time for Unity

Homecoming '69-'70

Homecoming ... a huge success ... indeed a time for unity. Concert ... great ... featuring Ramsey Lewis Trio and the Byrds. Huge crowd ... marvelous responses. The sounds ... fantastic!

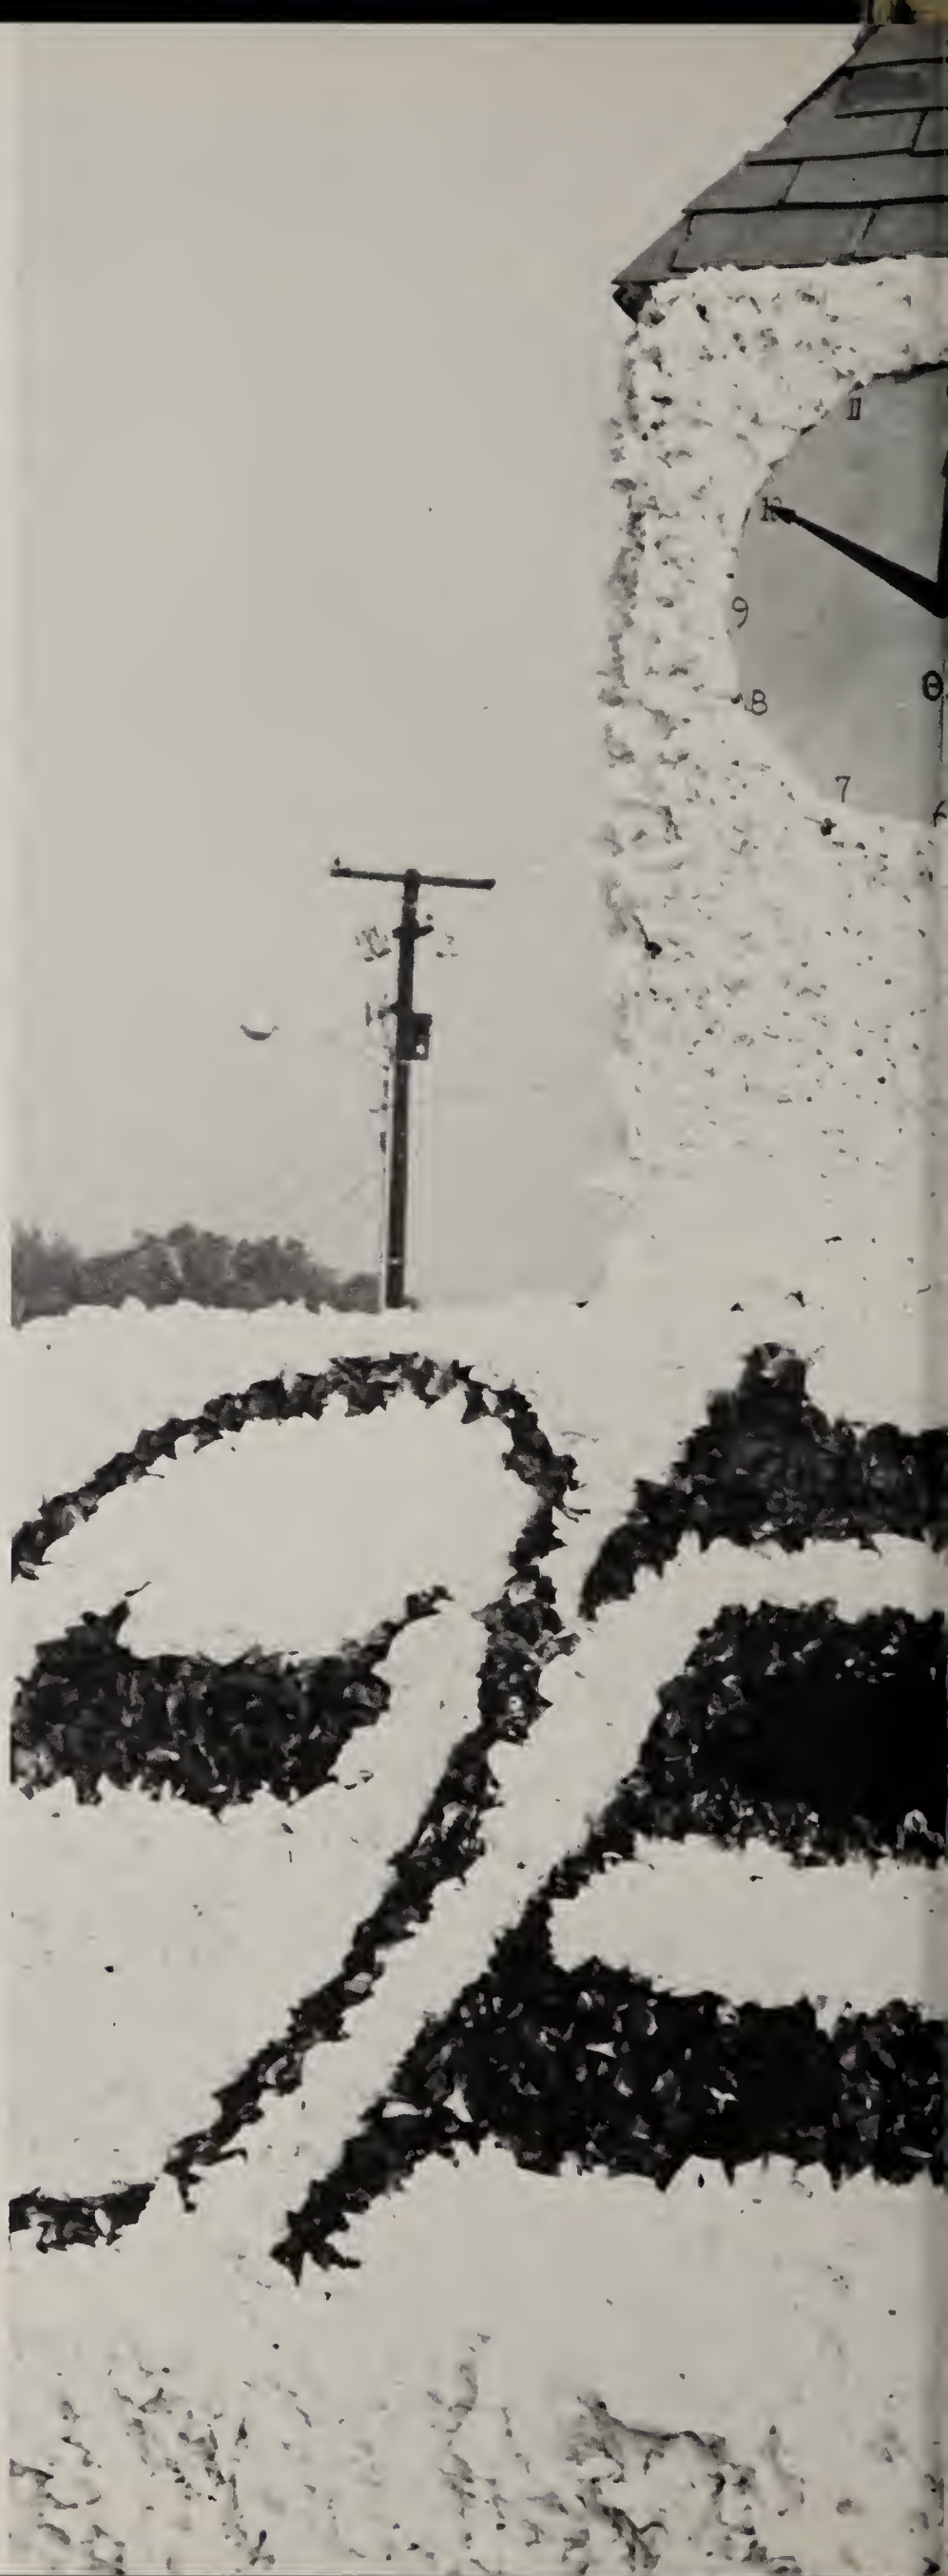

Patti Zekan representing Alpha Lambda Delta ... graciously accepts the crown ... reigning as Homecoming Queen for 1969-70.

Parade through downtown Charleston ... watched by throngs of people. Homecoming Queen candidates rode in shiny convertibles with sparkling smiles ... floats followed streaming through the streets ... received enthusiastically by the crowds.

Soccer game after the parade ... smashing victory as the Golden Eagles took on West Virginia Wesleyan. The Eagles were cheered on for their triumphant performance ... Victory!

At the dance ... everyone danced to the great soul sounds of the Soul Express. Awards were presented ... Sigma Phi Epsilon for the best float ... Theta Xi for best all around float. The dance attended by many showed evidence of unity for one ... and unity for all ...

Best Dressed Coed

December 5 was a big day for Beverly Bowles as she was chosen "Best Dressed Coed of Morris Harvey College."

This contest was sponsored by the Pan-Hell council and Inter-Fraternity council under the direction of Phyllis Cirelli. The girls competing were judged not only for leadership in fashion and grooming, but on some campus activity that was beyond their regular curricular requirements as well.

The contestants all modeled outfits showing much feminine flair. They modeled campus attire, a date outfit and evening wear. The judges for the contest were introduced. They were buyers from Frankenberger's, the New Girl, and Risk's Department Store. It was indeed a difficult decision for the judges to make as all eleven girls participating possessed much poise and individuality.

First runner-up was Joy Guthrie representing the freshman class and second runner-up was Lynn Richardson representing Alpha Sigma Phi.

Bev Bowles, who represented Zeta Beta Tau, will represent Morris Harvey College in Glamour Magazine's "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America" contest.

Don Crawford, the Black Balladeer

Coffee House Circuit

Last year it was the Saxons, this year it was Edmonds and Curley and Don Crawford having the same troubles as the previous did, but making out just as well.

Edmonds and Curley are a rising new comedy act brought to the MH campus on September 22-27. The general reaction was that they were very funny people, but the overall reaction wasn't that favorable.

On March 2-7, Don Crawford was brought to our campus with two performances each evening. Because of the good response, he was held over for an extra night. Crawford describes his music as, "Life music. It's about the things we've all felt."

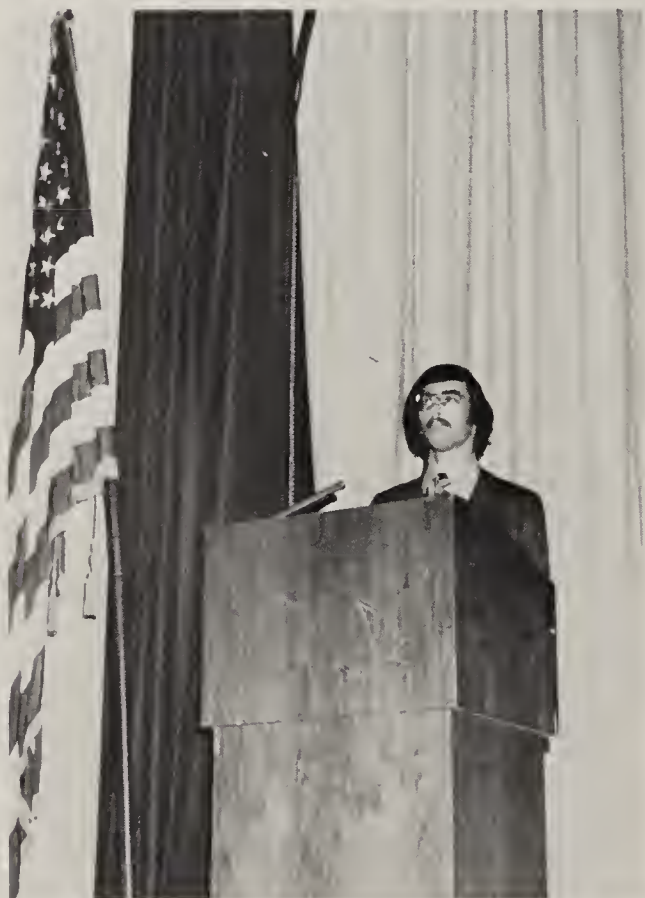

Each of these groups performed nightly for a week.

Travelogue, '70

On Friday and Saturday night, May 8 and 9, Morris Harvey College's annual May Day ceremonies were held. Travelogue, 1970: "Easy Rider" was the theme. Highlighting the Friday evening events was the annual Greek organization competition and the installation of Student Government Association officers for the 1970-71 school year. On Saturday night a concert was held featuring a 1920's banjo band, "Your Father's Mustache."

Larry Robertson served as master of ceremonies for the Friday festivities. Robertson introduced May Day Queen Laura Dellaguzzo and her court. When they were seated, Greek sing competition began. When all the songs were finished, the Alpha Xi Delta sorority and the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity were selected competition winners. Both groups were awarded trophies at the conclusion of the evening.

Mitch Austin gave his farewell address and presented Dr. Frank Krebs with a special award for all he's done for SGA. Peter Cohen, SGA president-elect, next took the podium.

Following the ceremonies a reception was held in the A. W. Cox Reception Hall.

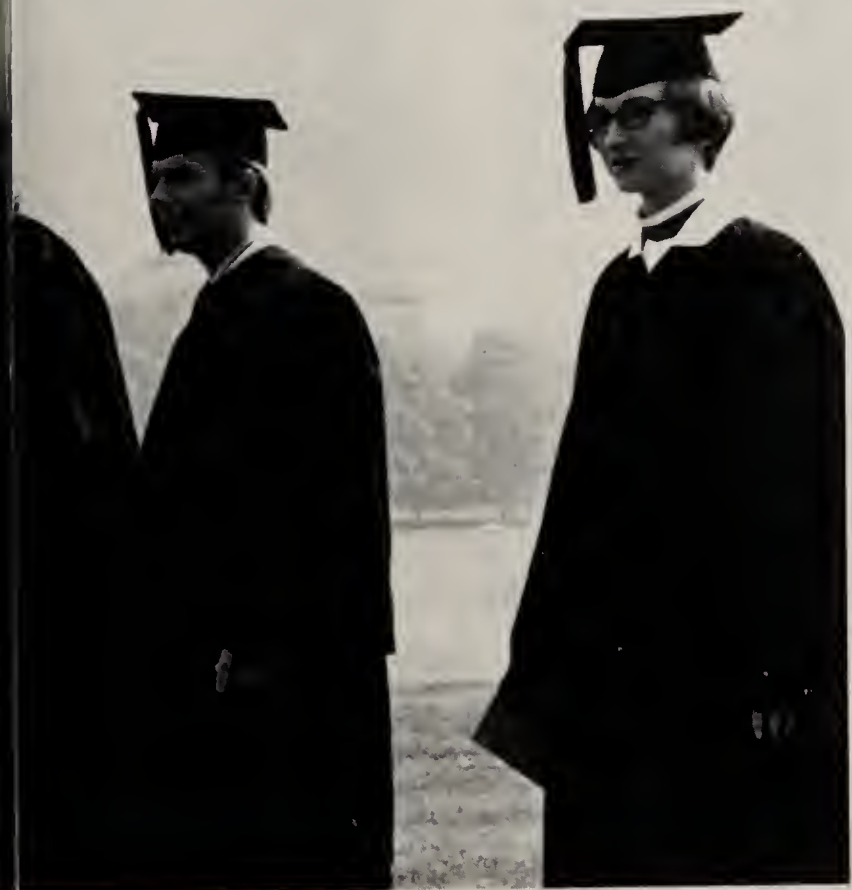

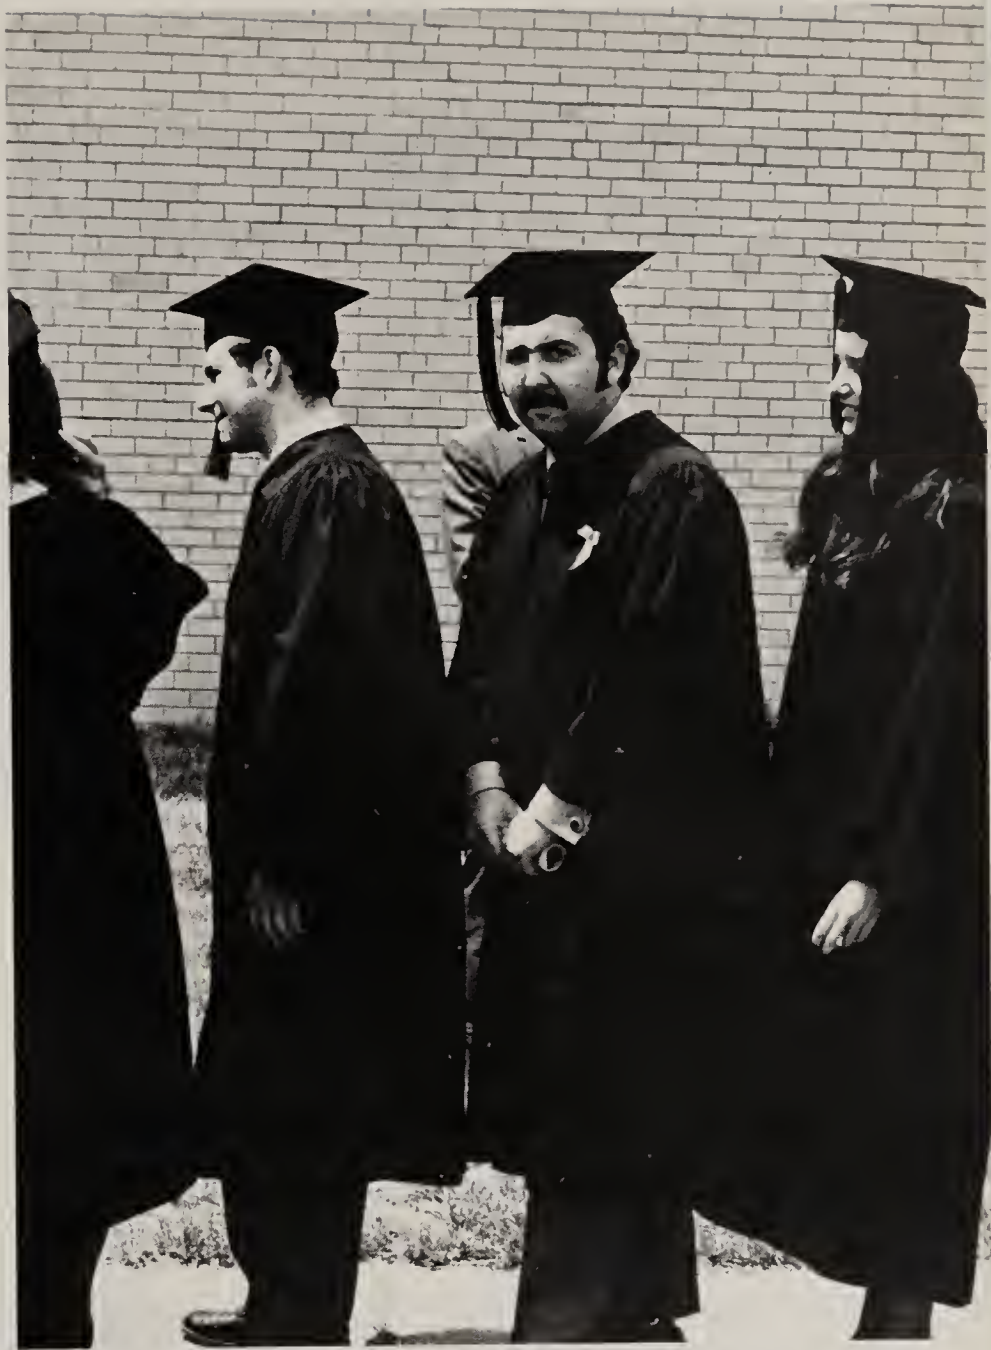

Graduation '70

FOUR YEARS.

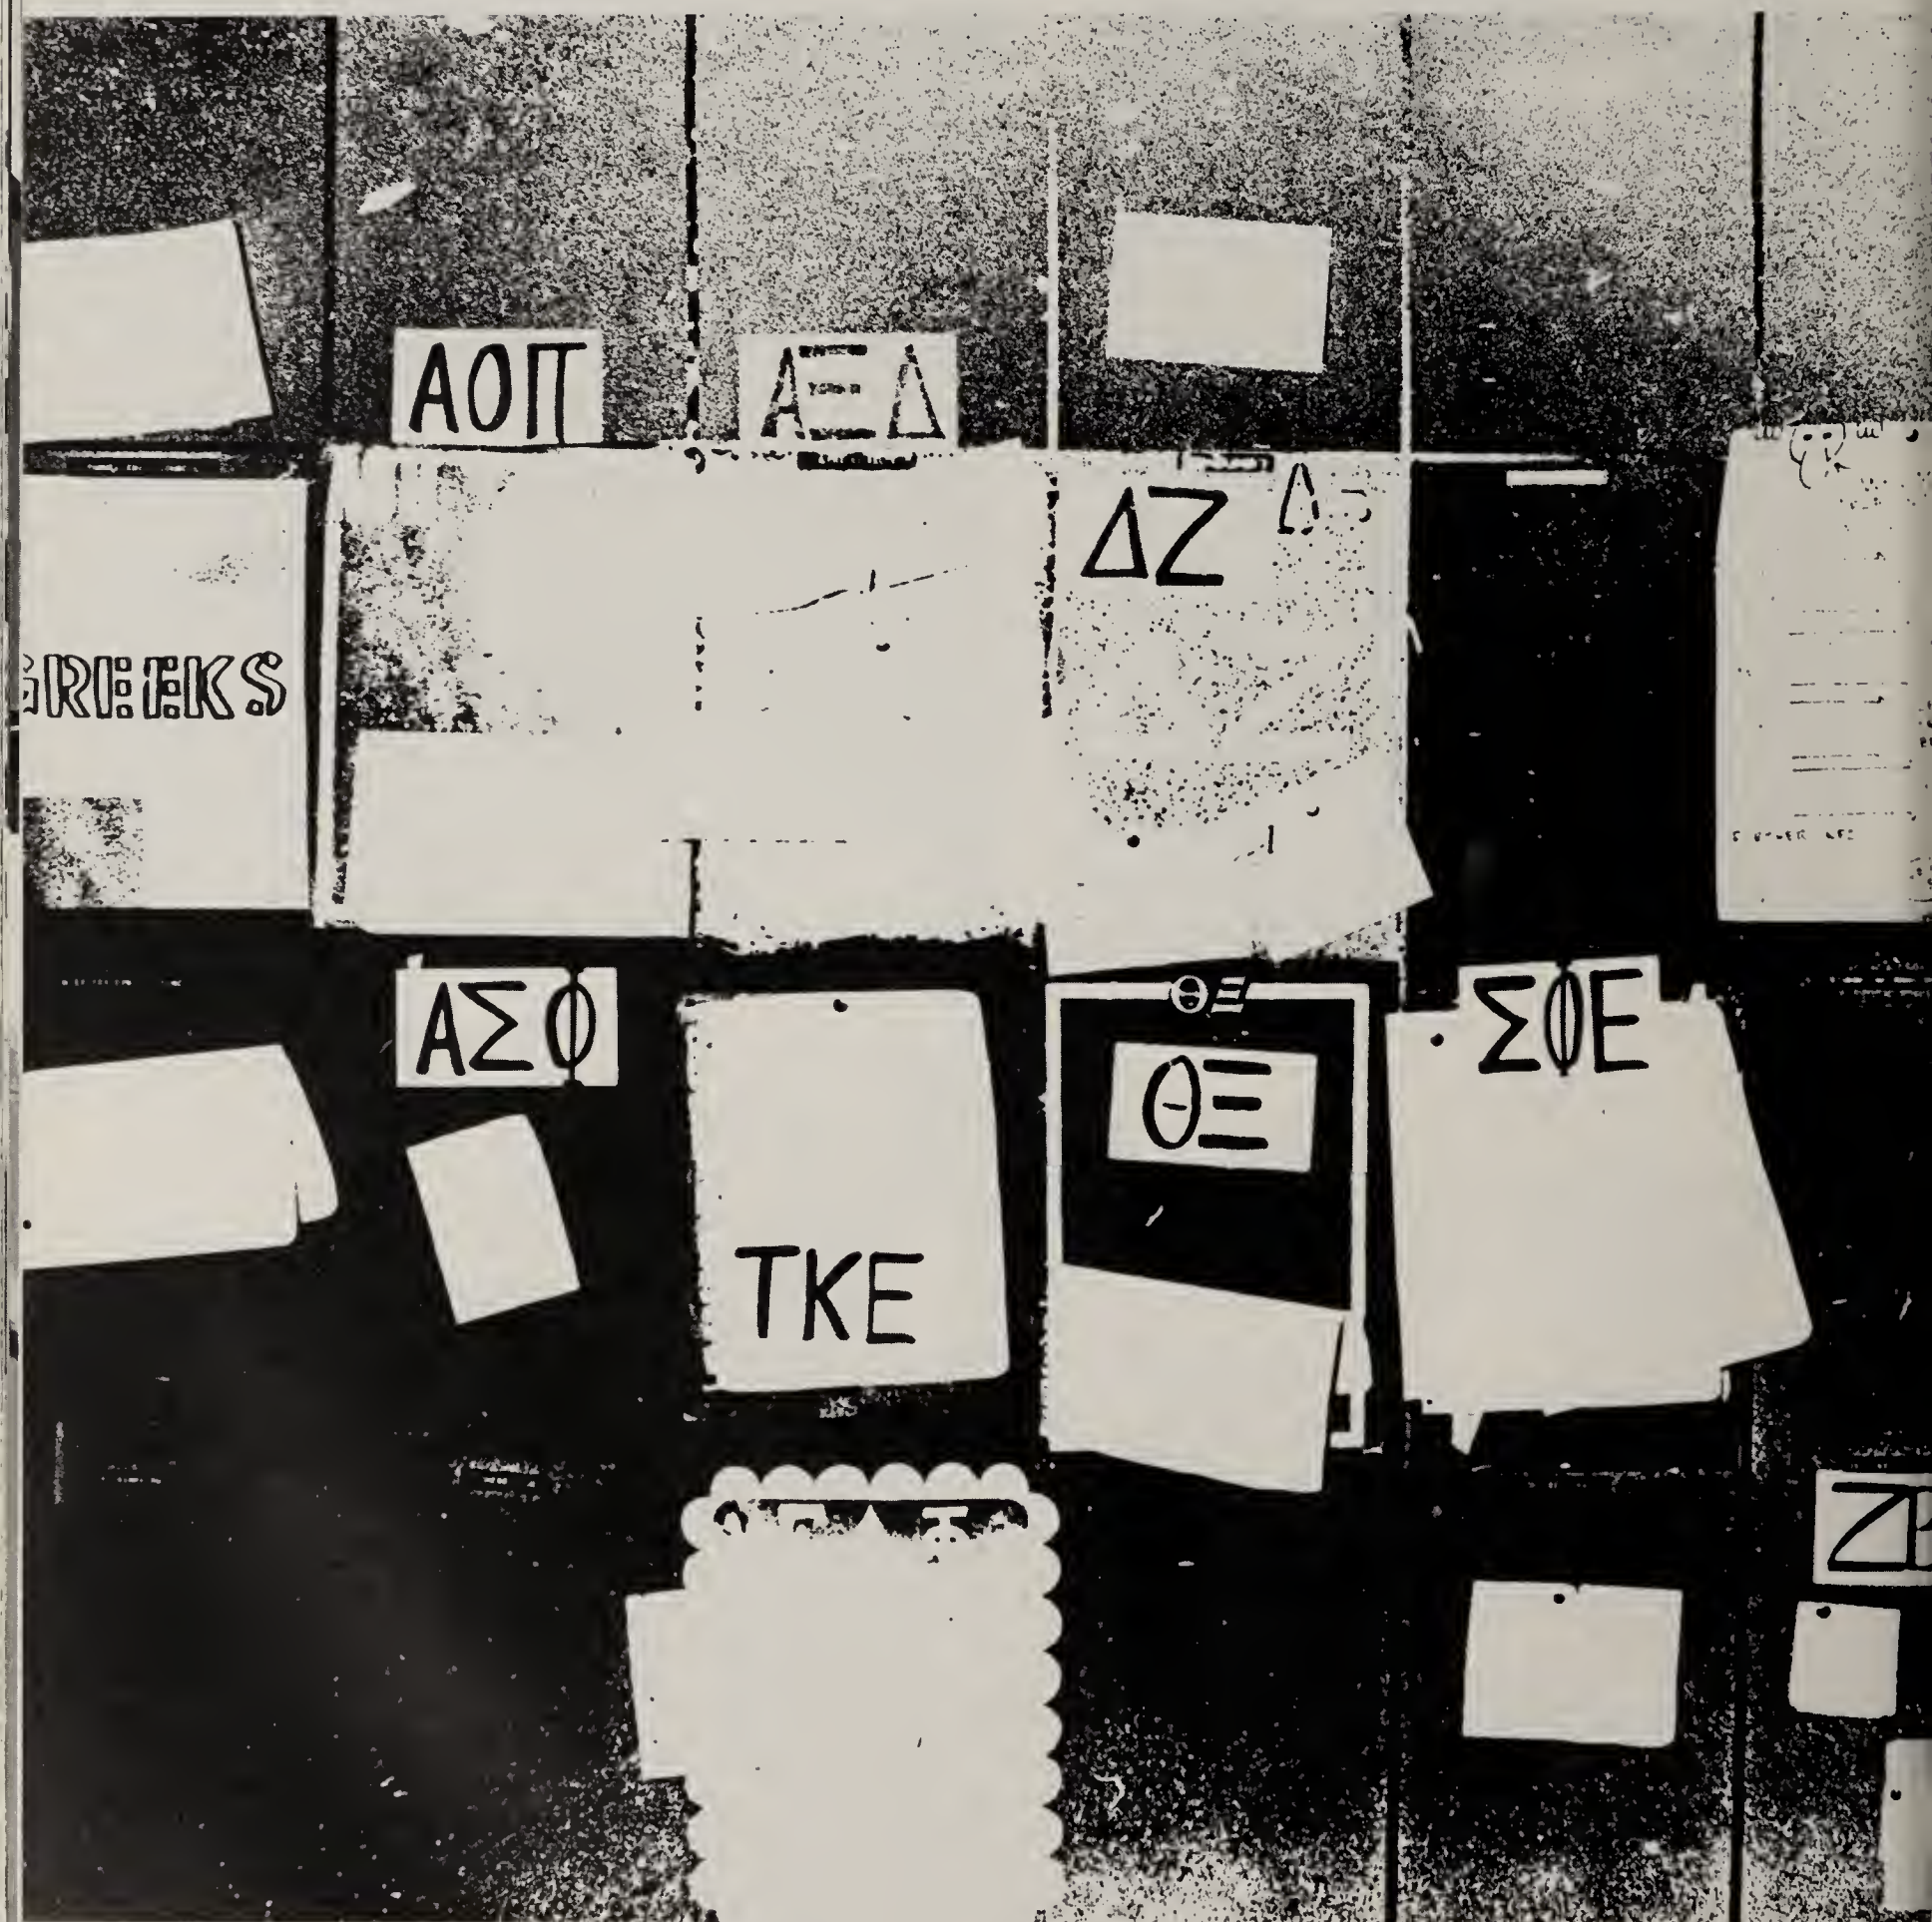

From walking alone in your mortar board. To walking across the speaker's platform. Studying you have to do on your own. Tests no one can take for you. Papers you sit up to write while everybody sleeps. A handshake from President Buckalew. And a diploma. Parties where you really haven't planned on drinking much. Sitting around late Saturday nights, talking about great dates. Or lousy ones. Trying to sing along with the band at a dance when they keep on changing the words. The choir harmonizing bar after bar of the Morris Harvey hymn. And it's over.

Unity makes us what we are.
 And interests more clearly define the unique in each of us.
 Organizations give birth to new emotions,

for it is our emotions which make us.
 They add femininity, or the strong masculine touch.
 They make us cry when someone is hurt,
 or reach into our own pocket

when a frat brother can't pay his dues.
 This is what organizations create and mold into each of us.
 love, pride and pity.

Organizations continue
 even after the school week.
 There are many Saturday afternoons spent at philanthropic centers.

And many moments of feeling so close to the other members that you want to just run up and hug them!

The Student Government Association under President Mitch Austin took on a new light in 1970. This was the year that the student body lost some of its apathy and became aware of events that occurred nationally from campus to campus. On October 15 we participated in the country-wide, campus-wide moratorium day. A candle light service was held to conclude the day's activities consisting of lectures and group discussions of the war in Vietnam.

Homecoming, May Day, Faculty Evaluation, talent shows, and mixes were some of the events sponsored by the SGA.

The officers are: Mitch Austin, President; Cal Voice, V.P.; Marie Fort, Secretary; Marc Schreiber, Treasurer; John McChesney, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Moshavim

Highlighting the year for the Jewish students at MHC was a dinner at Chanukah to celebrate the holiday. Bagel and lox brunches were regularly scheduled throughout the year as students enjoyed the hospitality of the community and temple. The Moshavim also featured films on Israel and Jewish holidays and customs in its attempt to foster Jewish belief, culture and heritage.

Blackfriars

Success was enjoyed by the Blackfriars from their first production in October until their last in the spring. Some of the plays the dramatic group put on were "My Hands is Full of Gifts," "The Garbage Hustler" and "Squaring the Circle"—which was put on during Russian Week.

Art Guild

As in previous years, the Art Guild did not receive the interest that it needed from the students, but things were accomplished. With Debbie Payne as their president, the Guild sold Indian beads to the students, visited art galleries and made plans to contribute a gift to the MH art department. Mrs. Ruth Richmond, a new addition to the art department, acted as advisor.

SCA

A new student organization was born on the MH campus this year—Students for Community Action. SCA plans to be more active in the way of planning programs, rallies, and in general tackling the major issues of the day than any other campus group has ever done.

“Involved” is the key word in the Preamble, says Gary Hawkins, head of SCA, and “Action is the key word in our name.”

Young Republicans

The Young Republicans consist of students who are interested in the political affairs of the state and of the country. Speakers were brought in to discuss modern issues which are relevant to current political policies. The members are: L-R, Mary Hogshhead, John Stevens, Michael Cline, Jim Montgomery, Charles Mikels, George Spruce, Karen Atkinson.

Carol Flint acted as president for the American Childhood Education International. This group did volunteer work for needy children and were given more experiences working with children. Speakers were brought in and discussions on controversial educational subjects were held. Nyana Rowley acted as their advisor for the school year.

Literary Club

The Literary Club's main achievement during the school year was to publish a literary magazine—L'Aiglon. Co-Editors, Pat Miller and Mike Goldman, coordinated all the literary works which are submitted by both students and faculty. Informal meetings were held throughout the year in which the students read and criticized each member's poetry. The advisor of the group is Barbara Yeager.

Harveyan Comet '70

Plans for the 1970 HARVEYAN began to take shape in the summer of 1969. From then on it was a constant struggle with one goal in mind—the May 29th deadline. Thousands of pictures were scheduled, taken, and re-taken. Organizations were asked to turn in articles, and a few did. Yearbook work became a chore and an obsession, with studies, classes and sleep being disregarded completely. Finally, the HARVEYAN was completed with complete coverage of college life and many memories.

This year, as in the past, the staff of the COMET continued in its pursuit of responsible journalism by following all of the facets of campus life. Within its pages are interviews with important people, focusing on local and nation-wide problems. Deadline time arouses turmoil that only one who worked on a publication can appreciate. The all-too-soon weekly deadline brought many frustrations, but along with it came the satisfaction of the Thursday edition.

TO AN ATHLETE DYING YOUNG

The time you won your town the race
We chaired you through the market-place;
Man and boy stood cheering by,
And home we brought you shoulder-high.

To-day, the road all runners come,
Shoulder-high we bring you home,
And set you at your threshold down.
Townsmen of a stiller town.

Smart lad, to slip betimes away
From fields where glory does not stay
And early though the laurel grows
It withers quicker than the rose.

Eyes the shady night has shut
Cannot see the record cut,
And silence sounds no worse than cheers
After earth has stopped the ears:

Now you will not swell the rout
Of lads that wore their honours out.
Runners whom renown outran
And the name died before the man.

So set, before its echoes fade,
The fleet foot on the sill of shade,
And hold to the low lintel up
The still-defended challenge-cup.

And round that early-laurelled head
Will flock to gaze the strengthless dead,
And find unwithered on its curls
The garland briefer than a girl's.

*A. E. Housman

As the rain swept Blackwell field, Davis & Elkins swept Morris Harvey by a score of 8-2. The defeat left M.H. with a 7-2 overall record and destroyed their championship hopes.

In favor of M.H. it must be said they never let up and played well to the end. Most teams down 8-0 would have given up but the team, more determined than ever to make a good showing, came back with the final 2 goals in front of an appreciative crowd.

Freshmen, you can spot them anywhere!
Candid, non-sophisticated faces,
They are becoming known in a world which is yet unknown to them.

The Sophomore year is an awakening.
They learn about life.
Beneath their apathetic cool are sensitive feeling individuals.

The Junior is alone.
He knows himself better
but has apprehensions about the world
he has yet to face.

These college years are lived;
then gone.
The beauty of them is not taken away
but remains in the memories recorded in a crumpled yearbook.

They are seeking their own identities,

EXAMS:

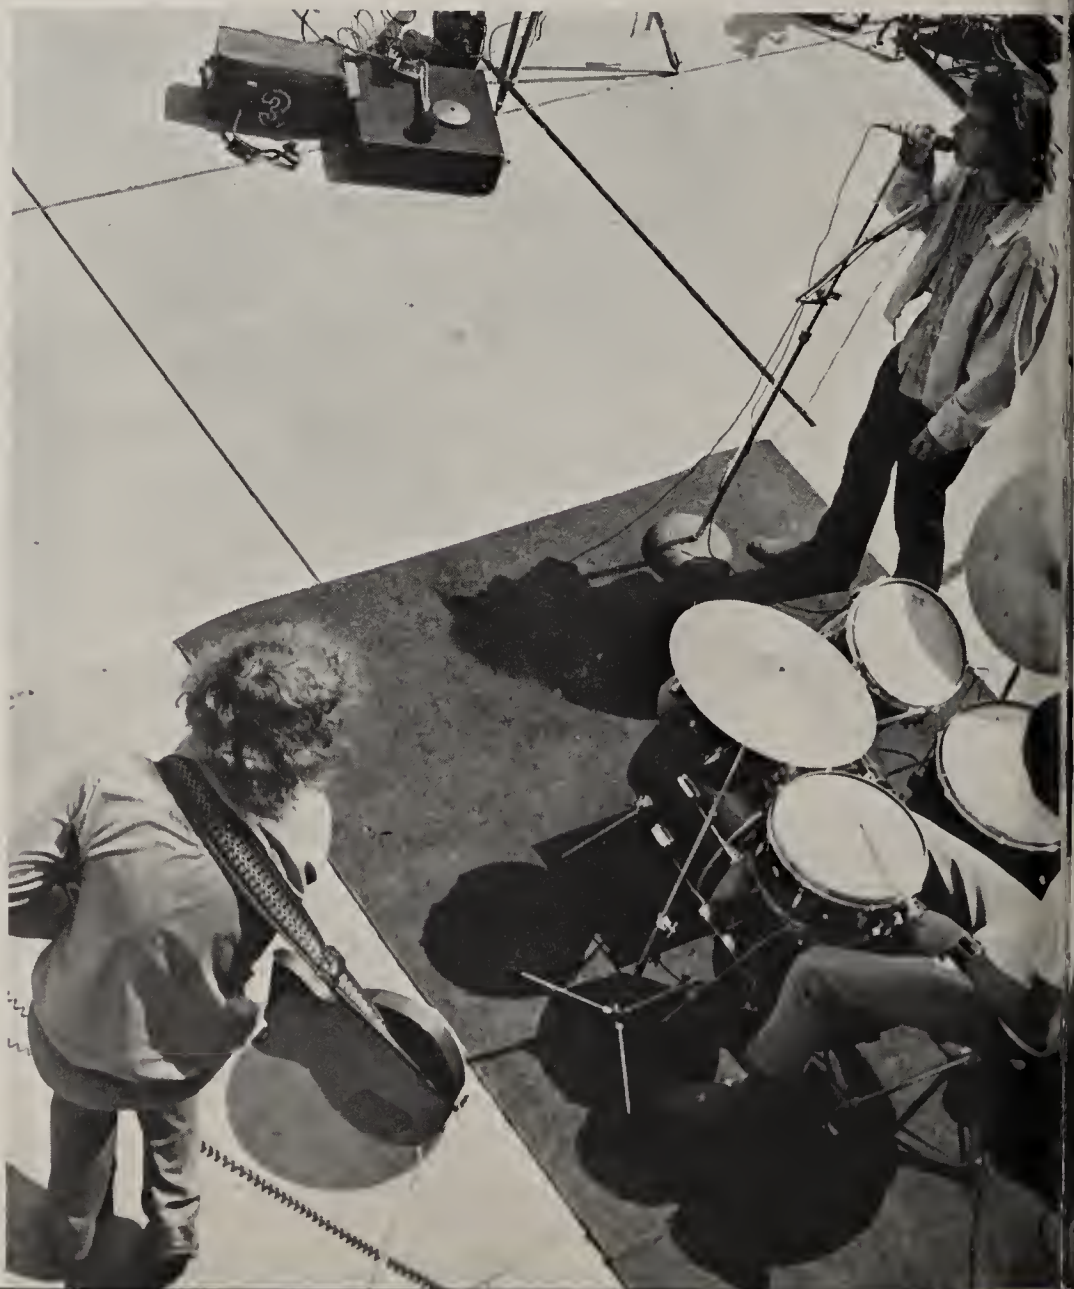

After a hard day's studying it's relaxing to sit on the GSU steps and catch a few last rays on a whispered breath. "I wish I were out of this dump!" But, with the advent of fall, the tune changes. Everyone looks forward to seeing their friends again and once more being a part of the whole. This is the way it has always been and always will be here at M.H. even after we have graduated.

A few people like to kick up their heels once the tensions for grades have died down. A picnic and a few hours of study in the sun do wonders.

PEACE DEMONSTRATIONS

As exam week approaches students think of protesting U.S. involvement in Cambodia. Signs adorned the greens and students warmed the grass in the four day sit in. Students were asked not to go to classes by the 200 protesters. As a climax for the demonstration, students marched on the capitol. All was peaceful. There was no violence and yet policemen with billy clubs and riot helmets guarded the doors after weekend school movies.

THE GREAT BOAT CONSPIRACY

One of the highlights of this year's grown-up-kid play was a boat built by Bob Suehnholtz and Conrad Cole in their dorm room. Bob and Conrad sailed across the river and cheered the Eagle's crew team on in the meet against Purdue. The boat sank after crossing the river a few times. The two students were later brought in front of the Discipline Committee for a profane "hands off" sign on the boat. Chaos was raised. Bob and Conrad later used "The Great Boat Conspiracy" as their platform in the junior class elections.
